

APPLICATION AND INFORMATION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME APPLICATIONS

Victims of Crime Assistance Act 1976

What is an Extension of Time Application?

An Extension of Time Application is completed on a Statutory Declaration, and is required when an application for Victims of Crime Assistance is made outside the prescribed time limit.

The lodgement of an Extension of Time Application enables the Commissioner to determine whether 'special circumstances' exist and is a way for the Commissioner to authorise the lodgement of an application for financial assistance outside of the prescribed time limit.

What is the prescribed time limit?

If an adult at the time of the offence, an application should be lodged within three (3) years from the date of the offence.

For a child victim at the time of the offence, an application should be lodged within three (3) years of the child victim reaching the age of 18 years.

If the offence occurred prior to 21 June 1976 there is no basis for an application.

What is a special circumstance?

A 'special circumstance', when used in relation to an Extension of Time Application, is a legal term which means something unusual, uncommon or exceptional. While a reason for not lodging an application may appear special to the individual applicant, in order to satisfy the legal requirement, the special circumstance must be able to be considered unusual, uncommon or exceptional amongst all Extension of Time Applications. Therefore the following are not considered to be special circumstances:

- Not knowing of your right to apply for Victims of Crime Assistance
- Not knowing about the prescribed time limit for lodgement of applications

How will the applicant know if the Extension of Time Application has been approved?

Once the Commissioner has made a decision on the Extension of Time Application, the Victim's Assistance Unit will forward a copy of the Commissioner's decision to the applicant together with advice on what happens next.
