Your Submission to the TPC Review: It is imperative in a democratic society that all planning decisions are made with oversight, independent of the government of the day. Community concerns be must acknowledged & have influence on the final outcome to ensure a balanced & fair system is maintained. Ignoring local concerns in decision making is a step towards a totalitarian form of government.

The panel chosen to provide this oversight should represent a broad section of society to enable it to make fair & unbiased decisions & it's powers should be expanded.
