Your Submission to the TPC Review: Having carefully read the role and functions of the TPC I would be most concerned if the upcoming review resulted in any reduction in its powers and responsibilities. It is critical that the TPC retain its role as an independent expert body, open to the public and with clearly defined functions.

In the absence of any clear statement of the purpose for the review, or any guidelines for its conduct, I urge government to reassure the community that the powers of this important body will not be reduced.
