Your Submission to the TPC Review: The Tasmanian Government and Tasmania has thrived because of the wilderness and beauty of this state. Many Tasmanians have spent decades to preserve what we have, the very product that you are now selling. We need independent oversight. We need the Government to respect independent advice and not be swayed by vested interests.

I have watched our incredible country lose out to big cooperations. Every battle that sees the forests saved, has to be fought again, whilst every loss is irretrievable. Vested interests keep making the battle, but we rely on good Government to preserve and protect. If not, then at least make sure there is independent oversight that is responsive to the community and to the long term preservation of our state.
