

Timeframe and Process for Appointment as a Justice of the Peace (JP)

The following flowchart outlines the process to appoint a JP in Tasmania. The timeframes are approximate only and dependent on a number of factors, including the applicant's timeliness in completing requested tasks, responses from other agencies, training availability and changes at the Government level (e.g. a State election).

