

I would like to make a brief comment regarding the proposed changes to legislation concerning Dangerous Criminals and High Risk Offenders.

The proposed changes are fair and reasonable and meet community expectations regarding the management of this small but high impact group of offenders.

It is fair, just and sensible that these changes be adopted: if circumstances change then this new information must be considered by the courts.

I support these amendments and congratulate the government for considering them.

Geoff Couser

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]