This Bill is a politically motivated attempt to falsely convince electors and Liberal Party backers to support the Government's aims.

The Government should be spending their time and tax payer's money to protect Tasmania's natural resources, not attacking Australians who are standing up for our environment, and its ecosystems, in a peaceful, responsible manner.

The Government's efforts have previously been judged and deemed unconstitutional, yet they persist in this attack on decent Australians who have no ulterior motives.

Environmental protesters are actually standing up for our existence, which is threatened by environmental degradation and global warming.
