Your Submission to the TPC Review: The TPC is and should continue in it's role of Independence and advisor on Planning matters for the Government. The public should know that TPC is totally independent of Government and it should not be seen to be controlled by a Minister. The public should have a say on hearing matters that concern them in regards to planning matters brought before the TPC Tasmanian community matters and public hearings are vitally important and informing the public is crucial. TPC should be maintained as a strong independent body for the State.
