

Scheme Expansion

Project update

16 April 2025

Registration to Work with Vulnerable People (RWVP) has a new website.

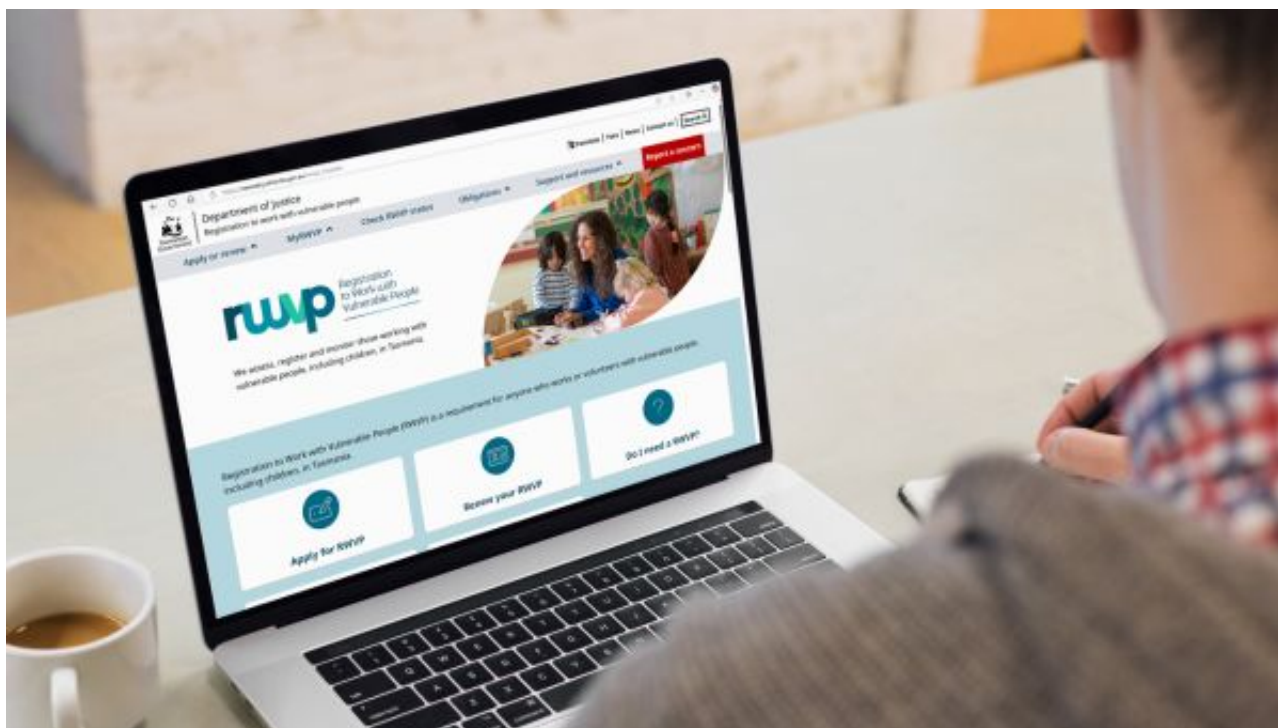

To help workers, volunteers, employers and organisations learn about and use our new website, we've developed information that you might like to share with your contacts through your intranet, emails and newsletters, and social media.

Welcome to our new RWVP website

RWVP has a new website. It provides more direct and easier access to everything RWVP for applicants, registrants and employers. It will also house growing resources like fact sheets and sector guides to explain the current RWVP scheme and the changes that are happening as part of the RWVP Expansion Project's work.

Make sure you bookmark <https://www.justice.tas.gov.au/rwvp>.

Get our Stakeholder Communications Pack

To help workers, volunteers, employers and organisations learn about and use our new website, we have developed information that you might like to share with your contacts through your intranet, emails and newsletters, and social media.

What's included?

- A news article to include in the next issue of your newsletter or on your intranet.
- A social media post.

Get the Stakeholder Communications Pack for the new RWVP website now!

We would also appreciate if you could:

- Pass this news on to your website team, so they can ensure any links in your website go to <https://www.justice.tas.gov.au/rwvp>
- Ensure any resources you have that refer to RWVP and its website use <https://www.justice.tas.gov.au/rwvp>.

New to the RWVP scheme?

- Catch up with all our newsletter updates.
- Read more detail about the RWVP Expansion Project.
- Learn about the RWVP Scheme.
- Encourage others in your team or community to sign up for future news!

Our mission

To deliver a robust Registration to Work with Vulnerable People Scheme as an important means of safeguarding children and vulnerable adults.
