Dear Sir/Madam,

I would like to make the following submission to the review of the Electoral Act 2004.

Any donations with a cumulative value (over a whole party group) over $1,000 during one electoral term to be fully and publicly disclosed.

Online, continuous real-time disclosure to the Australian Electoral Commission of donations to political parties, candidates and associated entities;

Public funding of election campaigns, so all candidates receive the same amount of funding for their campaigns, creating an even playing field;

Failing that, a cap on expenditure for individual candidates and parties in House of Assembly elections;

A donation cap of $2,000 aggregate per donor, per parliamentary term; many voters cannot afford even this sort of donation to a party or candidate. This would go a long way to ensuring both perceived and actual fairness of elections.

Ban donations from all corporate donors.

Ban donations from foreign interests.

Thankyou,

Grant Scurr
