If you apply at Service Tasmania you will need to take your original identification documents with you.

SECTION 6: Personal information protection statement - Confirmation of consent

In line with the Personal Information Protection Act 2004, the Registry of Births, Deaths and Marriages is collecting this information so that we can determine your eligibility to obtain the requested certificate and to prevent fraud. If you do not provide all of the information requested, particularly that relating to the reason you need the document and your relationship to the registered person, then you may not be provided with a copy of the certificate. Your personal information may be disclosed to law enforcement agencies, courts and other organisations authorised to collect it. Documents provided as proof of identity may be verified through the National Document Verification service (DVS). Documents issued by this office may also be verified by other organisations using DVS.
